We’ve Come a Long Way, People

By Pauline Schmertmann

From Our Saviour’s Lutheran Church, chartered in April 1950, through today’s University Evangelical Lutheran Church and Campus Center (the congregation voted to change the name in 1956), ULC celebrated its 60th anniversary with a “blowout” banquet on Saturday, April 17th, and a special worship service on Sunday, April 18th.

A festive group of a hundred or so gathered on Saturday night to start the weekend celebration. Among those present were current member Lois Wilkowske, who came to Gainesville in 1950 with her late husband Howard; former ULC pastors, the Reverends Robert Carr and Roger Kronmann and their families; current and former members; current and former Campus Ministry students; and, friends.

The atmosphere in the United Church of Gainesville Hall was bursting with excitement. Happy voices rang out, and there were lots of hugs and smiles of recognition as young and old lined up for the buffet to start the night. The air was filled with music, sacred and 50-ish. Prizes were awarded to those who had dressed for the occasion in 50’s attire (more than one letter sweater, beautiful dresses, even hats and gloves). Bingo, identifying pictures of congrega-tion members from years gone by, proved hilarious. As the evening ended there was music for dancing.

On a more serious note, among those at the microphone during the evening, in addition to congrega-

Seven CM Students Take the Graduation Walk

Every year students finish their program of study at either the University of Florida or Santa Fe College. This year, seven of our UF students have attained either a bachelors or masters degree. All but one, who is going to do graduate studies at UF will be leaving.

Kevin Robert Andrews, son of Robert and Cheryl Andrews will be graduating with a Bachelors of Science in Computer Engineering. While active in ULC Campus Ministry (CM) activities, he attend mission trips to St. Croix and Costa Rica, WWW (Wednesdays with the Word) [weekly ... re-treats and community dinners. Upon graduation, Kevin will be moving to Seattle to pursue a career with Microsoft.

Kate Herzhauser, daughter of Thomas and Betty Herzhauser, is graduating with her Master’s of Education with a specialization in English Education. She has served in several leadership roles (See Graduates… Page 6.)
EMB Represents Campus Ministry at Synod

By Shari O'Brien

For 13 years Evangelizing More Boldly (EMB) has been present at the annual Florida-Bahamas Synod assembly. This evangelistic movement was born from ULC’s rich soil as an outreach to the one million plus college and university students in the territory of the Florida-Bahamas Synod. Sensing this huge mission field was untapped and knowing first hand the value of campus ministry to college students, Shari O’Brien submitted a proposal with a mission to spawn new campus ministries across the state.

EMB began as a pilot project in April 1997, with ULC’s foundational support, Bishop Trexler’s approval and synod “seed monies.” ULCers have continued to support EMB prayerfully, financially and in service in its various activities. Jacksonville, Orlando and Tampa were EMB’s initially targeted sites, where the possibilities for ecumenical ministries at five campuses were discovered. These sites continued to be developed and assisted. Networking with ecumenical partners is part of EMB’s vision based on Ephesians 1 and John 17…that we are all one in Christ.

In 2000 the Synod Campus Ministry Committee (SCMC) was formed and assumed much of the structure for synodical campus ministry evangelism and growth that had been central to the work of EMB since 1997. Most of the members of EMB’s state board were appointed by the Bishop to serve on the SCMC. That body sought to more clearly define how EMB would continue to function as part of the Florida-Bahamas Synod’s new mission toward campus ministry. The following statement reflects the synodical relationship with EMB:

“Evangelizing More Boldly [EMB] consults with Florida-Bahamas Synod via the Synod Campus Ministry Committee in providing a model for Campus Ministry called Peer Ministry, in training Peer Ministers, lay and clergy support, and in networking.”

New ministry: EMB works with a partner congregation to raise up campus ministry in new locations.

Funding: EMB continues to seek new funding sources outside the Church for Campus Ministry, continues to assist established sites that are currently under-funded, and provides scholarships for Peer Ministers and/or Campus Ministers/Pastors.

Training: EMB provides annual Peer Ministry Training. (This was put on hold in 2008, but is available when campus ministry sites request training.)

Networking: EMB maintains an electronic network of sites and staff; seeks to keep in touch and advocate for sites that need support; and, provides leadership in coordinating a Campus Ministry presence at the annual Synod Assembly.

Having just celebrated 60 Years, ULCers can easily grasp the importance of EMB’s mission. At 2010’s Synod Assembly “Beyond Words,” Shari will be joined by ULC student Marissa Tweed, students from Jacksonville and Orlando, and Peer Ministers Emeritus [alums now serving their home congregations who want to continue to support Florida’s Campus Ministry]. We will strive to put a “face” on campus ministry, recruit advocates from the congregations across our state, tell our stories, and encourage new support and funding. ULC’s Enduring Gifts Committee will provide handouts for the FBS Mission Fair display and to help us engage attendees in dialogue in hopes of making others aware of the awesome opportunity to continue ULC’s Campus Ministry for years to come.

I realize many of you are not aware that EMB is part of ULC’s mission and it is important to tell our story periodically. I hope this little history reminds us all of the call to reach beyond ourselves, beyond the ULC mission, to answer the greater call of evangelism.

Having heard our keynote speaker share his story about being formed and reformed by ULC’s worship in the mid 1960’s, I pray you understand that my story is very similar to Rev. Weaver’s except it went deeper, moving me to be a full member of ULC and now a Lutheran. My story reminds me of not only the vision and mission of ULC come to fruition, but of our future which we must both celebrate, sustain and grow. The times are changing, are we?

Live boldly...follow god’s call evangelizing more boldly!!

PRAYERS:
For Adeline Bauman, Dick Dienhart, Donna May Evans, Jim Janke, Hal and Caleb (4) Noss, Betty and Frank Reisner, Pauline Schmertmann, Helen Wiegman, Bob Young and Betty, students as the semester is ending, especially those about to graduate, disaster victims…

OF INTEREST:
During the College of Agriculture and Life Science Awards banquet on April 13th, Scholarships of approximately $400,000 were given. Rikki Schwarz was recognized as one of the Ambassadors for the College, who are chosen for academics and leadership qualities. Rikki also received the Eugene Chester Terzenbach Memorial Scholarship.

The Larry J. Scholarship Medal of Excellence for minority students was presented to Alisha Wainwright by Dee Ann Connor. This scholarship was set up for minority students when Larry retired. He was very proud of this in that few Scholarships are given for minorities and he was instrumental in increasing minority enrollment while he was Dean of IFAS.

Kaley MacFayden has just been tapped as an Ambassador for the College.

TRIPS:
• Eckhard and Jean Schadow, on the morning after ULC’s grand 60th Anniversary banquet, boarded the Holland-American Ryndam in Tampa for a relaxing 17-day cruise. They would visit the Grand Cayman, Aruba and Curacao Islands, sail through the Panama Canal to visit Pacific ports and will disembark in San Diego in early May.

• Alice and Bruce Simpson traveled to attend Bruce’s annual National Right to Work conference in Washington, DC. Along the way, during their 10-day trip, they plan to stop to visit family.

MEDIA GLEANING:
—from the Gainesville Sun’s ‘Religion Week,’ Saturday, April 17th

Nice item about the ULC 60th celebration banquet and Sunday service, quoting both Pastor Collins and Eckhard Schadow. The article mentioned our ideal location in the heart of campus and that the celebration was an opportunity for former pastors, members, Campus Ministry students and present congregation to reflect on the church’s history and its spiritual impact on their lives and in the world.

AMONG CELEBRATION WEEKEND VISITORS:
• Pastor Carr and Alexis and college student daughters Amanda and Aimee, from Livonia, MI
• The late Helen and Loys Johnson’s son Loys and his wife Sharon, daughters Eunice Johnson

Virginia Lynn Lakatos (pronounced “luck-uh-tush,” rhymes with hush) officially joined ULC and our church family on April 11th through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

Virginia was born in Miami, lived in Washington State with her parents and family during her elementary school years, lived with her grandmother in Hungary for a short time, and lived in several foster homes in the Gainesville area until two years ago.

When she turned 19, she was on her own. Concerned friends helped her weather some difficult situations and obtain medical care.

Being invited to ULC, Gina has made friends and enjoys being part of the ULC Campus Ministry community, singing in the choir, and serving as a worship reader.

Gina has now turned 20 and is living in her own apartment. She has worked and studied hard and earned her GED in February. She has begun her undergraduate studies at City College.

Virginia Lynn Lakatos receives her baptismal candle during the Sacrament of Holy Baptism on April 11th.

Enduring Gift Fund

Q: I would like to give money to ULC, but how can I make sure that the gift will be lasting?
A: Endow for the future. Our Endowment Fund is designed to preserve the principal and a portion of the earnings, and use the remainder of the earnings to fulfill our Campus Ministry mission when the Fund Balance reaches its minimum threshold. Because only a portion of the annual earnings on our Fund will be used each year, the Fund will continue to grow buffering the Fund against inflation and providing a permanent source of support for our mission.

Our Fund is managed by the Lutheran Community Foundation in Minneapolis.

Please feel free to contact Jim Yale if these questions and answers prompt other questions that you might have.

Altar Flowers

Please help enhance worship with flowers behind the altar. We need some more people to sign up to fill our chart. This chart is located on the bulletin board across from the water fountain in the Kaiser Center. Thanks to all past, present and future givers.

Your Worship Board.
ULC’s 60th Anniversary Celebration was a huge success. Over 100 people attended Saturday’s banquet. Music, good food, fellowship, skits, and a moving testimony by Rev. Charles Weaver helped make the event memorable. Pastor Bob Carr completed the festive weekend with a very moving sermon on Sunday. It was heartwarming to see so many old friendships re-kindled and new memories forged.

Special kudos go to Eckhard Schadow for his coordination of the entire event. We also thank all the volunteers who worked on this project, including: Shari O’Brien, Jeanne Chamberlin, Jackie Klein, Otto Johnston, George Chappell, Brent Walbolt, Jean Schadow, Sam Brill, Jackie Johnson, and Royal Catering of Interlachen.

Folks, please note the article that appeared in the Gainesville Sun on Saturday, April 17th in the Religion Section highlighting our 60th Anniversary. In addition, ULC will be featured in an upcoming Home Magazine article as well.

A mission team from ULC will be making a trip to Haiti in May. Members will be bringing much-needed medical supplies to that earthquake-ravaged country. We ask that all our members, students, guests, and visitors pray for their safe passage and return, as well as for the people suffering from the ravages of that dreadful earthquake.

Two of our community-based mission recipients – St. Francis House and Gainesville Community Ministry – are still in desperate need of your assistance. Both organizations are in need of financial support (cash donations), volunteer support, and supplies. The easiest way to provide help is to contact either organization directly and ask for the Executive Director. Kent Vann is the Director at St. Francis House and Michael Wright is the CEO at Gainesville Community Ministry. In these tough times, we need to be cognizant of the fact that there are many folks in need right here on our own doorstep.

As promised at the Annual Congregational Meeting, your leadership will be conducting a question and answer session following worship service on Sunday, May 16th to discuss our current financial status and talk about projections for the rest of 2010. We urge all interested parties to attend this session.

Please be on the lookout for information coming up in the next month or so related to a ULC retreat. Your elected Council and ministry board leaders will be asked to attend and pray for the well-being of our congregation, and to focus on a unified, mission-driven strategy for increasing our membership in the upcoming year.

Haiti Mission Trip Needs Support

By Ron Gordon

ULC Members and Friends depart on a mission trip to the Village of Hope in Haiti on May 7th and return on May 12th. The Theme of the trip is: God’s Work through Our Talents: Enriching Haitian Lives and Livelihoods.

Our Team will be collaborating with a medical team to do painting and health improvement projects among other activities.

For ULCers not going, there are two opportunities to participate. First, through donations of first aid and medical supplies selected from the list displayed in the Narthex of the church. Second, by contributing money for the mission trip. Just designate your donation to Haiti Mission Trip on your offering envelope or as otherwise appropriate.

Campus Ministry Sunday

April 25th was the final Campus Ministry Sunday event of the school year at ULC. For five seniors and one graduate student, it was their last as a ULC CM member. One senior will stay at UF for graduate studies.
60 Years...

tion president Mark Johnson and MC Otto Johnston (no relation J), was Jesse Saarela, son of former Pastor Jack Saarela, reading a letter from his father; another member remembering how she and her graduate student husband were welcomed in faraway Iowa by ULC connections; a former CM student telling how the ministry at ULC influenced her life and faith; and, a current student thanking ULC for “being

Pastor Bob Carr stands behind his wife, Alexis (center), and their two daughters, Aimee and Amanda. Here” for all of them.

The Rev. Charles E. Weaver, keynote speaker and former UF student, spoke of the far-reaching effect that his short time with ULC campus ministry and then Pastor Fred Castor had on his faith and his present work in the Methodist church. He urged the congregation to continue its mission of ministry to students and others, to invite, to share and to serve, and to keep on reaching out in Christ’s name.

On Sunday morning, former Pastor Robert Carr, who served ULC from 1983-1999, as minister of music and pastor, preached a powerful sermon “Be not Afraid.”

Thanks to Eckhard Schadow and the committee who worked diligently to ensure a special weekend for all of us. Eckhard coordinated the planning, designed the “Think 60” logo, and spent many difficult months calling our attention to the upcoming anniversary date, collecting historical facts and anecdotes, and dealing with caterers and T-shirts.
Let’s demonstrate ULC’s positive impact on our community and our world that ULC Rev. Weaver so eloquently spoke of last Saturday. Give to help people caught in tragedy. ...giving is what ULC does! Mark your offering envelope or check "Relief Fund."

Thank you from LWR

Large congregations and small ones, youth groups, families, individuals—so many people joined together in the days, weeks and months following the earthquake to help the people of Haiti. In just three short months, your collective efforts—both large and small—have helped Lutheran World Relief raise more than $6 million for vital relief and development programs in Haiti.

Dear Friends in Christ:

As we bask in the glow of our extraordinary 60th Anniversary Celebration last weekend, we wish to remind that you that your contribution to the ELCA Relief Fund will be supplemented by Thrivent Financial for Lutherans. For every $1 dollar you give, Thrivent will match it with $.50 cents.

Live boldly…follow god’s call

By Shari O’Brien

Should you wish to support EMB’s work you can make a donation via ULC by putting EMB on the “For ___EMB___” of your check. EMB does not wish to take monies from ULC’s current campus ministry or the Enduring Gifts campaign, but if you have extra to give sacrificially, EMB is a worthy cause.

We give thanks to those of you who regularly give to EMB, no matter how small. Those who were here in 1997 will remember we began with “penny jars”…we continue faithfully with whatever the Lord provides us. We value your prayers even more!!
